

In the beginning was God (Yahweh) the Father. He created heaven and earth. He created the angels to serve Him and maintain the earth. He created man in their own image and allowed man to live in paradise. He created a wife for man and told them to have children. Genesis 1:1-2:4, Exodus 31:17, John 1:1-4, Malachi 2:10, 1 Enoch 24:6,69:15-21 OTP, Jubilees 2:1-3 OTP

God is pure love and desires the love of all His creatures. He takes no pleasure in forced allegiance and grants freedom of will, that they may render Him voluntary service. God does not change and is the same God today as He was in the past and the future to come. He knows the end from the beginning. He is slow to anger and very forgiving. God is righteous and kind in everything He does. Only God the eternal King who is invisible and immortal is wise.

1 John 4:8, Malachi 3:6, Isaiah 46:10, Psalm 145:8,17, Romans 16:27, 1 Timothy 1:17

A movement began in heaven that was led by Satan (formerly an angel known as Lucifer) to overthrow the government of God. Revelation 12:3-4, Isaiah 14:12-14, Ezekiel 28:13-19

God allowed this movement to carry forward into active revolt instead of destroying Satan because until fully developed, sin (violation of divine law) would not seem like the evil thing that it was and God did not want the inhabitants of heaven to serve Him out of fear instead of from love.

The Great Controversy, Ellen G. White ch. 29

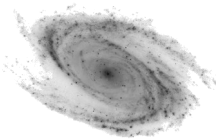

After Satan was banished from heaven this conflict spilled over to our world due to the disobedience of one man which resulted in Satan gaining control of the earth. Revelation 12:4, Luke 10:18, Genesis 2:16-17,3:1-6, Job 1:6-7, Romans 5:12,6:16, 2 Corinthians 4:4

An invisible conflict has been waged ever since and has been going on for around 6,000 years. The losses that have occurred from this conflict are astronomical. The weapons being used are unconventional and what is at stake is your very existence. This is the conflict between good and evil. The primary weapons that have been deployed by Satan are lies and distractions.

In conventional wars both sides use propaganda; however in this conflict only one side is engaged in disseminating disinformation because God does not tell lies. Numbers 23:19, Titus 1:2, Hebrews 6:18

For the good of the entire universe and for the countless generations still to come evil must be permitted to come to full maturity so that all can understand its horrors and true nature. The Earth became the testing ground for this evil to mature.

A plan was immediately put into action after the fall of Adam and Eve. Without the intervention of God... man would have been unable to resist the lure to sin, would have forever lost the Earth and be condemned to an eternal death. God said He would put enmity between Satan and His church and that it would result in a strike to Satan's head. 1 John 3:8, Genesis 2:17,3:15, John 8:44, Acts 13:10, Isaiah 54:5-6, Jubilees 3:15-25 OTP

From the beginning it was taught that there can be no forgiveness of Sin without the shedding of blood. First blood was shed as an example to follow at the time God made Adam and Eve coats.

This practice was continued by their child Abel who scarified a lamb as a sin offering to God.

Genesis 3:21,4:1-7, Leviticus 5:5-7, Hebrews 9:22

Satan accused God of being a tyrant, His laws impossible to keep, questioned God's love for His creatures and His creatures love and obedience for Him. Job 1:9-11,2:4-5, Zechariah 3:1-2, Revelation 12:10

All throughout history there has always been a remnant of people faithful to God whom He has preserved. This line was preserved through the great flood and founded the Jewish nation.

Romans 11:5, Genesis 6:9-13,17:5,22:16-18, Hebrews 11:7, Galatians 3:16

God spoke to the people over many generations using His prophets. This method of communication was the preferred choice by the people. Many of these prophets wrote down their words and these writings became known as scripture; which has formed the majority of the holy bible.

Hebrews 1:1, Exodus 20:19, 2 Timothy 3:16, John 5:39,46-47

God's laws which are the Ten Commandments is an expression of His love. It is the law of liberty that sets us free and teaches us right from wrong. Obedience to the law keeps us from evil. Adherence to the law should be the measure for determining good character.

Exodus 20:1-17, Matthew 22:37-40, Matthew 5:17-18, Revelation 12:17, James 1:25, Romans 5:13

Moses who led the Israelites from slavery out of Egypt told them that God would raise up a great prophet like himself and they should listen to him!

Deuteronomy 18:15, Isaiah 61:1-2, Daniel 9:25

The story of Ruth explains how lost inheritance can be restored under law though marriage by having an heir to inherit for the year of Jubilee.

Ruth 4:5, Leviticus 25:8-34

God's son Lord Jesus Christ (Yeshuah) is this great prophet Moses spoke about.

He came to save us from the penalty of sin by being a spotless sacrifice; thus replacing the animal sacrificial system which could never take away sin and was just a preview of the good things to come and restore our lost inheritance by adopting us as sons of God. 2 Corinthians 5:21, John 5:46, Acts 3:22,7:37, Hebrews 1:2,10:1-7, Romans 8:14-17

"For God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten son, that everyone who believes in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3:16

When Jesus Christ who had never sinned was murdered by sinful men the debate concerning sin was over. Satan was finally exposed as the liar and murder that he was and war broke out in heaven. Satan and his fallen angels were forever cast out of heaven.

1 Peter 2:22, Matthew 27:1,45-50, John 8:44, Revelation 12:5-10

The sanctuary God commanded be built was a replica of the real sanctuary in heaven. It shows how sin is dealt with and how it cannot be ignored. The law cannot be changed to make the sinner not guilty. Sins must be paid either by the sinner receiving eternal death or by the blood of Jesus Christ who died on the cross.

1 Kings 8:27, Exodus 25:8-9, Romans 6:1-2,23, Matthew 5:17

When a sinner was convicted of sin and wanted to confess he would come to the door of the courtyard with his sacrifice. He would lay his hands on the head of the innocent victim, confess his sins and then he would kill the animal himself. This was to impress upon the sinner that his sins would finally require the death of the spotless Lamb of God.

Leviticus 4:27-29,5:7,11, John 1:29

Some of the blood is caught by the priest, the remainder is spilt onto the ground and then the animal is burnt on the alter. The blood captured is then transferred into the holy place by the priest who would first cleanse himself at the laver.

Leviticus 4:30-31, John 19:34, Exodus 30:18

Inside the tabernacle the smoke of the incense represents the intercession of the Holy Spirit, making our prayers of confession acceptable to the Father. The blood is then sprinkled before the veil, thus transferring the guilt from the sinner to the tabernacle and this would accumulate throughout the year until the Day of Atonement.

Leviticus 4:16-17, Romans 8:26-27

On the Day of Atonement the high priest takes two perfect young goats and cast lots to determine which one would be the Lord's goat and which would be the scapegoat. The sins of the entire congregation would be transferred to the Lord's goat and killed. The blood would be sprinkled on the mercy seat (lid) of the ark of the covenant which contains the Ten Commandments, Aaron's budding rod and a small pot of manna located in the most holy place.

Leviticus 16, Exodus 25:16-17,16:33, Numbers 17:10

The high priest would then transfer those sins to the alive goat (scapegoat) and it would then be led away into the wilderness and set free.

Leviticus 16:10, Revelation 20:1-3

"The Lord is not being slow about His promise, as some people think. Instead He is being patient for your sake because He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent."

2 Peter 3:9

Anyone that is unrepentant, holds onto grudges, rejects Jesus or goes against God (i.e. during the time of the mark of the beast) will be condemned for eternal destruction in hell's fire. This occurs after the sleeping dead are resurrected and attack the holy city during the conflict Gog and Magog after 1,000 years from the second coming of Jesus.

2 Thessalonians 1:9, Daniel 12:2, Romans 10:9, Luke 13:3, Matthew 6:14-15,10:28,25:46, Revelation 13:15-17,20:1-10,22:11

God's law (the Ten Commandments) was not abolished. But we are free from being under the law by accepting Jesus and fulfilling the principle of the law by loving God and loving others. It is important to understand how to keep the law because it is our guide towards righteous living.

Jeremiah 31:33, Matthew 5:17-18,19:16-19,22:36-40, Galatians 3:24-25,5:1,5:14,18

In the future you will be forced to make a choice between God or remaining part of the economic society controlled by Satan. With the knowledge of God's law, you will be able to discern when this happens and avoid being deceived.

Revelation 13:15-17

"These people honor me with their lips but their hearts are far from me. They worship Me in vain; their teachings being merely man-made rules."

Isaiah 29:13, Matthew 15:8-9,19

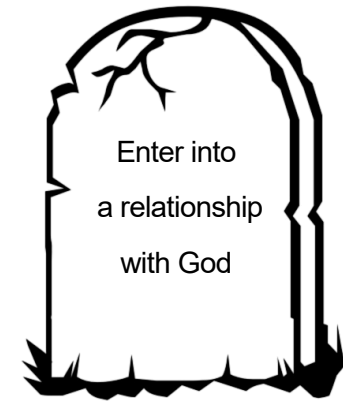

Jesus came to save you from sin, not in sin. The biggest obstacle to salvation is self-delusion and spiritual ignorance. Your opinions are just that; and have no power to save you if wrong; therefore you should carefully study for the truth in every matter and don't give up on attaining perfection.

2 Peter 1:20, Matthew 5:48,7:13-14, 1 Thessalonians 5:21, 1 Corinthians 3:18, Deut. 4:2

"Put on the whole armor of God so that you will be able to stand firm against the devil's schemes. For we are not fighting against flesh and blood, but against rulers, authorities and mighty powers in this dark world and against evil spirits in the heavenly places."

Ephesians 6:11-12
